NEWS - October edition

Holme Valley Parish Council marks the passing of Queen Elizabeth II

The news of the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II was received with great sadness by Holme Valley Parish Council and residents. Cllr Jason Brook, Chairman, in his Letter of Condolence to His Majesty Charles III, wrote:

"The Council and Your most humble citizens here in the Holme Valley note the gracious life of service the Queen dedicated to Her people. Hers was a most truly remarkable reign and the thoughts of Your people of the Holme Valley are with Your Gracious Majesty as You and the Royal Family mourn Her loss."

A Book of Condolence placed at the Civic was available for all Holme Valley residents to record their own messages of condolence. Arrangements were made for Cllr Brook to take the Book of Condolence to a number of other residents not able to travel to the Civic for them to record their thoughts.

Cllr Brook and Cllr Mary Blacka, Vice-Chair, laid a floral tribute under the Union Flag at the Civic as part of the Council's remembrance of Her Late Majesty. Cllr Blacka attended the Proclamation of the reign of his Majesty King Charles III at Huddersfield Town Hall. All formal Council events in the Period of National Mourning were postponed.

STOP PRESS – the asset transfer of Honley Library from Kirklees ownership to Holme Valley Parish Council is expected to complete during October, with Friends of Honley Library taking on the day-to-day management. The book-lending function will continue to operate as part of the Kirklees Library Service. Do keep an eye on our website and Facebook page for updates.

Council Meetings

Please note that the next Full Council meeting has been rescheduled for Monday 10 October, starting at 7pm, in the Exhibition Room on the third floor of the Civic, Holmfirth. Members of the public are always welcome to attend.
